

Anglican Historical Society (NZ)
Te Rōpu Hītori te Hāhi Mihinare ki Aotearoa

Occasional Papers

These Occasional Papers are part of a series edited by Allan Davidson. They have been published in small booklet form and are more substantial than the AHS Papers that have been distributed through the AHS Newsletters. These Occasional Papers are available for viewing and borrowing at Kinder Library, Saint John's College, Auckland.

Paper Two:

Title: Anglican Deaconesses in New Zealand: The 1960s Revival

Author: Geoffrey M R Haworth

Published 1997

ISSN: 1173-6755

ISBN 0-9583528-1-X

Description: Tells the story of the revival of the Deaconess Order in the Anglican Church in the 1960s. While in the long term this was unsuccessful, the revival contributed to the church's understanding of ministry and to the ordination of women as deacons and priests in the 1970s. Attention is given to a number of women who as deacons and priests gave significant leadership to the recognition of women's ministry in the church.