

Anglican Historical Society (NZ)
Te Rōpu Hītori te Hāhi Mihinare ki Aotearoa

Occasional Papers

These Occasional Papers are part of a series edited by Allan Davidson. They have been published in small booklet form and are more substantial than the AHS Papers that have been distributed through the AHS Newsletters. These Occasional Papers are available for viewing and borrowing at Kinder Library, Saint John's College, Auckland.

Paper Seven:

Title: Anglicans and Maori School Trusts: The 1905 Royal Commission, Background Recommendations and Influence

Author: Earle Howe

Published 2004

ISSN: 1173-6755

ISBN 0-9583528-6-0

Description: The author explores the Anglican Church's acquisition of land at Porirua and Otaki to provide for schools and the education of Māori. The investigation of the 1905 Royal Commission and the subsequent actions of the Church's handling of its trusteeship are outlined and evaluated in the light of Te Titiri o Waitangi and the Church's bicultural commitment.