

Anglican Historical Society (NZ)
Te Rōpu Hītori te Hāhi Mihinare ki Aotearoa

Occasional Papers

These Occasional Papers are part of a series edited by Allan Davidson. They have been published in small booklet form and are more substantial than the AHS Papers that have been distributed through the AHS Newsletters. These Occasional Papers are available for viewing and borrowing at Kinder Library, Saint John's College, Auckland.

Paper Three:

- Title: A Footnote to Selwyn's Legacy: E. H. Strong and St John's College
- Author: Ken Booth
- Published 1998
- ISSN: 1173-6755
- ISBN 0-9583528-2-8
- Description: E.H. Strong was on the staff at St John's College 1902, 1908-1915 and Warden 1932-1938. His "Recollections" and other papers, which were rediscovered after Allan Davidson's 1993 history of the College, provide fascinating insights into Strong's churchmanship and involvement in the politics surrounding St John's. Ken Booth adds substantially to our knowledge about Strong and the people he interacted with.