

Anglican Historical Society (NZ)
Te Rōpu Hītori te Hāhi Mihinare ki Aotearoa

Occasional Papers

These Occasional Papers are part of a series edited by Allan Davidson. They have been published in small booklet form and are more substantial than the AHS Papers that have been distributed through the AHS Newsletters. These Occasional Papers are available for viewing and borrowing at Kinder Library, Saint John's College, Auckland.

Paper Ten:

- Title: Of Superior Stock: George and Margaret Kissling: Church Missionary Society Missionaries in Sierra Leone and New Zealand
- Author: Earle Howe
- Published 2008
- ISSN: 1173-6755
- ISBN 0-9583528-9-5
- Description: The author illustrates George Kissling's work in Africa and New Zealand from his letters. Particular attention is given to his ministry in Auckland among Māori and later as the first vicar of St Mary's. He and Margaret ran St Stephens School for Māori girls, with George also training some Māori for ordination. George was active in church affairs becoming Archdeacon of Auckland.