

Anglican Historical Society (NZ)
Te Rōpu Hītori te Hāhi Mihinare ki Aotearoa

Occasional Papers

These Occasional Papers are part of a series edited by Allan Davidson. They have been published in small booklet form and are more substantial than the AHS Papers that have been distributed through the AHS Newsletters. These Occasional Papers are available for viewing and borrowing at Kinder Library, Saint John's College, Auckland.

Title: Ventures of Faith and Community, The Development of Churches on the North Shore, Auckland

Author: Peter Lineham

Published 2014

ISSN: 1173-6755

A Joint Publication: Wesley Historical Society and Anglican Historical Society, 2014

Description: Peter Lineham outlines the complex story about the growth of the different denominations on the North Shore, the gathering of congregations and the building of churches. Particular attention is given to the tension between denominational planning and extension, and the independent initiatives taken by local communities.